The materials

We ensure that all of our materials are only of the highest quality so that all you need is making the best choice of material for you. The high quality of our standards and also our savoir-faire extends to the choice of materials and finishes we use at every stage of the process, and to the meticulous attention to every detail. Beech wood, oak wood, hard iron, aluminum, the finest leathers and the most original fabrics; the result is a unique high-quality furniture.

Larindar / Since 1986

A collection of complete and harmonious furniture. We believe the name Larindar is far more than just manufacturing sofas. All of our products have been passing quality and conformity tests include endurance, safety and durability. Larindar blends design, function, materials and colors to create harmonious living. Our products are available in two brands, Larindar and Larindar plus. The current catalog presents the products of Larindar.

The colours

Larindar offers an exceptional color range of tones and mid tones to suit all tastes. You can adapt a single design in a variety of different ways to create an entirely unique look. Real freedom is a question of choice.

All sofas can be available in multiple compositions.
